Junior Activity Program Guidelines:

- Courts can sponsor two activities or projects annually for junior members (ages 15 and under).
- Junior activities must be special events for just junior members.
- Activities should be enjoyable for the junior members but also promote either faith, volunteerism, or patriotism. At least one junior activity should include service to others.
- Activity must be connected to and promote NCSF as the sponsor.
- At least five junior members must be present at each event to qualify for subsidy.
- The junior members and guests are required to sign themselves in on the back of this form.

Reimbursement:

- Each junior court activity will be subsidized $50 per event, up to $100 per year.
- Funds received as a subsidy for a junior activity are to be used, first to recoup any expense connected to the event and then held in the court treasury earmarked solely for future junior activities.

Return the completed Junior Activity forms, complete with signatures:
