The Society may specify the manner of the election and which alternative is to be presumed if no election is made.

All funds of the Society shall be available for the payment of benefits and of expenses incurred in conducting and furthering the work of the Society. When it is received, any change shall take effect as of the date the request for beneficiary change was signed, as long as the request for change was mailed or actually delivered to the Society while the insured was alive. Such beneficiary change shall be null and void where the Society has made a good faith payment of the proceeds or has taken another action before receiving the change.

ARTICLE VIII RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

Sec. 8.01 PURPOSE

The purpose of this Article is to prescribe the sole means to present and resolve grievances, complaints or disputes between members, insureds, certificate owners or beneficiaries and the Society or its directors, officers, agents and employees. Procedures set forth in this Article are meant to provide prompt, fair and efficient opportunities for dispute resolution, consistent with the fraternal nature of the Society, without the delay and expense of formal legal proceedings.

Sec. 8.02 SCOPE

Except as expressly limited in this Article, this Article applies to all past, current and future benefit certificates, members, insureds, certificate owners, beneficiaries and the Society. It applies to all claims, actions, disputes and grievances of any kind or nature whatsoever. It includes, but is not limited to, claims based on breach of benefit contract, as well as claims based on fraud, misrepresentation, violation of statute, discrimination, denial of civil rights, conspiracy, defamation, and infliction of distress, against the Society or its directors, officers, agents or employees. To the extent permitted by applicable law, this Article applies to all claims, actions, disputes and grievances brought by the Society against members, insureds, certificate owners or beneficiaries. In the event that a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems any party or claim in a dispute not subject to this Article, this Article shall remain in full force and effect as to any remaining parties or claims involved in such dispute. This Article does not apply to any claims or disputes relating to interpleader actions to determine proper owner, beneficiary or payee.

Sec. 8.03 PROCEDURES

No lawsuits or any other actions may be brought for any claims or disputes covered by this Article. The following are the steps and procedures for presenting and resolving disputes:

- Step 1. Appeal. Appeal of the dispute to a designated reviewer within the Society as appropriate to the dispute.
- Step 2. Mediation. If Step 1 does not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution, either party has the right to have the matter mediated in accordance with the applicable mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association (or the rules of another neutral organization as agreed upon by the parties). The mediation shall be administered by a neutral organization agreed upon by the parties.
- Step 3. Arbitration. If Step 2 does not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution, the matter will be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules as prescribed by the American Arbitration Association (or the rules of another neutral organization mutually agreed upon) as applicable to the type of matter in dispute. The arbitration shall be administered by a neutral organization agreed upon by the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding, subject only to the right to appeal such decision as provided in the arbitration rules and applicable laws. The member, insured, certificate owner or beneficiary shall have the right to be represented by legal counsel of his or her choosing at any time at his or her own expense (unless, as provided in Section 8.06 below, he or she is awarded attorney's fees). If an issue in dispute is subject to law that prohibits parties from agreeing to submit future disputes to binding arbitration, arbitration results shall be nonbinding, unless the parties agree to binding arbitration after the claim or dispute has arisen. The Society will take reasonable measures to assure that the dispute resolution process proceeds promptly.

Sec. 8.04 COSTS

The administrative costs of the mediation and/or arbitration (including fees and expenses of mediators or arbitrators, filing fees, reasonable and necessary court reporting fees) shall be paid by the Society. Provided, however, unless awarded pursuant to Section 8.06 below, each party shall bear its own attorney's fees, expert fees and discovery costs.

Sec. 8.05 RESTRICTION OF JOINDER OF DISPUTES

The procedures of this Article are designed to afford individual members, insureds, certificate owners, beneficiaries and the Society a prompt, fair and efficient means of resolving individual disputes. Accordingly, no disputes may be brought forward in a representative group or on behalf of or against any "class" of persons, and the disputes of multiple members, insureds, certificate owners or beneficiaries (other than immediate family) may not be joined together for purposes of these procedures without the express written consent of both (i) all members, insureds, certificate owners and beneficiaries affected thereby and (ii) the Society. The restriction on joinder of disputes contained in this Section 8.05 is a condition upon which the agreement to arbitrate contained in Sections 8.02 and 8.03 depends. Thus, should a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deem the restriction on joinder of disputes contained in this Section 8.05 unenforceable or otherwise void, there shall be no agreement to arbitrate.

Sec. 8.06 REMEDIES.

This paragraph applies to any claim or dispute resolved through binding arbitration as provided in Section 8.03 above, and it applies to any action in a court of law in the event that a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems any party or claim in a dispute not subject to binding arbitration. Except as expressly limited in this paragraph, the parties to a dispute may be awarded any and all damages or other relief allowed for the claim in dispute by applicable federal or state law, including attorney's fees and expenses if such attorney's fees and expenses are deemed appropriate under applicable law. Exemplary or punitive damages may be awarded for claims arising under applicable federal or state statute(s) to the extent permitted under the applicable statute(s) or, for claims arising under common law, exemplary or punitive damages may be awarded but may not exceed three times the amount of compensatory damages. In the event that any court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems the foregoing limitation on common law exemplary or punitive damages to be unenforceable or otherwise void under applicable law the remaining portion of this Section 8.06 shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE IX OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

Sec. 9.01 The name of the official publication of the Society shall be National Catholic Forester or such other name as the Board of Directors shall determine. It shall be published at regular periodic intervals under the direction and approval of the Board of Directors. The official publication shall be provided to each member in good standing according to the records of the Society. If the records of the Society show that two (2) or more members have the same mailing address, an official publication mailed to one member is deemed to be mailed to all members at the same address unless a member requests a separate copy. Any general notice printed in the publication shall constitute sufficient notice to the membership.
